

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

I feel that diversity is becoming a rarity in the media, and loosening ownership rules only consolidates the hold that media giants have on the nation's newspapers, radio and tv stations. If this trend continues I feel that soon we'll have no diversity left at all.
